Context

Interpol has introduced its first-ever Silver Notice, a groundbreaking initiative to track and recover laundered assets across international borders.

About the Silver Notice:

What it is: A colour-coded alert by Interpol to track and recover criminally acquired assets such as properties, vehicles, financial accounts, and businesses.

- Member countries can issue a Silver Notice to request information about assets linked to criminal activities.
- Facilitates the identification, location, seizure, confiscation, or recovery of assets under national laws.

Need for Such Notices:

Addresses the challenge of transnational organized crime and recovers illicit wealth.

Helps combat fraud, corruption, drug trafficking, and other financial crimes.
